Detailed Action

This application claims benefit of provisional application 60418818, filed October 11, 2001, and provisional application 60/415452, filed October 1, 2002. Claims are pending in this application and subject to restriction herein.

Election/Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-32 and 41-43, drawn to a method of treating a disease selected from type I hypersensitivity, asthma, or allergy, classified in class 514, subclass 369, for example.
- II. Claims 33-40 and 44-49, drawn to a method of identifying a compound effective to treat type I hypersensitivity, asthma, or allergy, classified in class 514, subclass 826 or 885, for example.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are directed to methods with completely different purposes and effects. The invention of group I is drawn to a method of treating a disease, while the invention of group II is drawn to a method of identifying a compound effective to treat a disease. The subject population of group I is made up of subjects suffering from various diseases, while the invention of group II is practiced on laboratory animals or T-cell cultures. The invention of group I is practiced with chemical compounds known to have a positive therapeutic utility, while the method of group II is practiced with compounds whose therapeutic utility or lack thereof is unknown. The goal of the method of group I is to cause an improvement in the subject's clinical condition, while the goal of the method of group II is to discover compounds effective for treating a particular disease.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 USC 103(a) of the other invention.

Because the above election/restriction requirement is complex, a telephone call to applicant's agent to request an oral election was not made. (See MPEP 812.01)

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Eric S. Olson whose telephone number is 571-272-9051. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 8:30-5:00.
